

An Argentine Tango Weekend With Charles Reder

Charles Reder, one of the most sought after dancers around the country, teaches Argentine Tango in Cincinnati with his long-time partner Debby Vigna. Presently they are concentrating on basic elements of axis and balance to refine the dance. Over the past ten years, Charles has studied with most of the greats, including Julio y Corina, Susana Miller, Alicia Pons, Cacho Dante and Tomas Howlin. More recently he has been studying with Gustavo Naveira, Fabien Salas, Alex Krebs, Luciana Valle, and Tete Rusconi. In Memphis, Charles will use his articulate teaching style to explore elements of the dance rather than patterns or figures so that we may integrate them into our dance vocabulary. All elements are useful in both close and open embrace but emphasis will be on material for the social floor.
